A Must Read

A forwarded e-mail submitted by Betty Crowell (daughter of Wilson Tingley, son of Nelson Eugene Tingley and Edith Gertrude Gage Tingley)

WOW!!! This lady should run for President!! She is right on the money, and she's not afraid to take credit for it either!! She left her name and phone number at the end!

This letter you are about to read was written by a fourth grade teacher this past week. She even gave the world her telephone and fax numbers. We are in dire need of more true American citizens who are proud of OUR United States of America. WAKE UP AMERICA . . . please . . . before it is too late!

April 27, 2009
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington, DC 20500
Mr. Obama:

I have had it with you and your administration, sir. Your conduct on your recent trip overseas has convinced me that you are not an adequate representative of The United States of America collectively or of me personally. You are so obsessed with appeasing the Europeans and the Muslim world that you have abdicated the responsibilities of the President of The United States of America. You are responsible to the citizens of the United States.

You are not responsible to the peoples of any other country on earth. I personally resent that you go around the world apologizing for the United States, telling Europeans that we are arrogant and do not care about their status in the world. Sir, what do you think the First World War and the Second World War were all about if not the consideration of the peoples of Europe? Are you brain dead? What do you think the Marshall Plan was all about?

Do you not understand or know the history of the 20th century? Where do you get off telling a Muslim country that the United States does not consider itself a Christian country? Have you not read the Declaration of Independence or the Constitution of the United States? This country was founded on Judeo-Christian ethics, and the principles governing this country (at least until you came along) come directly from this heritage. Do you not understand this?

Your bowing to the king of Saudi Arabia is an affront to all Americans. Our President does not bow down to anyone, let alone the king of Saudi Arabia. You don't show Great Britain, our best and one of our oldest allies, the respect they deserve, yet you bow down to the king of Saudi Arabia. How dare you, sir! How dare you!

You can't find the time to visit the graves of our greatest generation because you don't want to offend the Germans, but make time to visit a mosque in Turkey. You offended our dead and every veteran when you gave the Germans more respect than the people who saved the German people from themselves. What's the matter with you?

I am convinced that you and the members of your administration have the historical and intellectual depth of a mud puddle and should be ashamed of yourselves, all of you. You are so self-righteously offended by the big bankers and the American automobile manufacturers yet do nothing about the real thieves in this situation: Mr. Dodd, Mr. Frank, Franklin Raines, Jamie Gorelic, the Fannie Mae bonuses, and the Freddie Mac bonuses. What do you intend to do about them? Anything? I seriously doubt it.

What about the U.S. House members passing out $9.1 million in bonuses to their staff members -- on top of the $2.5 million in automatic pay raises that lawmakers gave themselves? I understand the average House aide got a 17% bonus. I took a 5% cut in my pay to save jobs with my employer.

You haven't said anything about that. Who authorized that? I surely didn't! Executives at Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac will be receiving $210 million in bonuses over an eighteen-month period, that's $45 million more than the AIG bonuses. In fact, Fannie and Freddie executives have already been awarded $51 million -- not a bad take. Who authorized that and why haven't you expressed your outrage at this group who is largely responsible for the economic mess we have right now.

I resent that you take me and my fellow citizens as brain-dead and not caring about what you idiots do. We are watching what you are doing and we are getting increasingly fed up with all of you. I also want you to know that I personally find just about everything you do and say to be offensive to every one of my sensibilities. I promise you that I will work tirelessly to see that you do not get a chance to spend two terms destroying my beautiful country.

Sincerely,
Every Real American

Dear Cousins

by June Siner (daughter of Opal Loretta Tingley, daughter of Edith Gertrude Gage Tingley and Nelson Eugene Tingley)

My one and only brother, Jack Winters, was very special to me. He enlisted into the Navy Air Corps in 1941. He was still in his teens and wanted to go after the enemy (Japan). My mother was praying he wouldn't have to go into combat, and that's what happened. He was in the Philippines, and our men and General MacArthur (in charge) chased the enemy back. So Jack never saw dangerous war.

He came home safe and sound. He met Rose Ann shortly after the war, married, and they had two daughters, Leslie Ann and Rebecca.

He passed away March 1, 2003. He is missed a lot. I'm glad he was able to come to our reunion. He loves the Lord also. Praise the Lord.

Write It on the Back of Your Envelopes

A forwarded e-mail submitted by Ron Stead (husband of Dorothy Stead, daughter of Wilson Tingley, son of Nelson Eugene Tingley and Edith Gertrude Gage Tingley)

Write it on the back of your envelopes, or front. We think this is a great idea. We'll start writing it on the front of our envelopes, too! -----including bills. You may have heard in the news that a couple of post offices in Texas have been forced to take down small posters that say "In God We Trust." The law, they say, is being violated. Anyway, we heard proposed on a radio station show, that we should all write "In God We Trust" on the back of all our mail. After all, that's our national motto, and ----- all the money we use to buy stamps. We think it's a wonderful idea.

We must take back our nation from all the people who think that anything that offends them should be removed. If you like this idea, please pass it on and do it. The idea of writing or stamping....."In God We Trust" on our envelopes sounds good to us.

Some people are having a stamp made too.....Let's use it as our signature on e-mails, too!

It's been reported that 86% of Americans believe in God. Therefore, we have a very hard time understanding why there's such a mess about having "In God We Trust!" on our money and having God in the pledge of allegiance. Could it be that we just need to take action and tell the 14% to "Sit down and shut up"?

If you agree, pass this on, if not, delete!!! But remember if you delete this, that's one reason why this world is in the mess we're in now. We sit back & let it happen!!

Tea Party Speech

by Florene Turner (daughter of Helen Mae Tingley Ulrich Goss, daughter of Edith Gertrude Gage Tingley and Nelson Eugene Tingley)

Hello – my name is Florene, and I am an American patriot. Do you know the kiss method? K-I-S-S? Keep it simple, stupid? That is not the method that the federal government uses, unfortunately. Wouldn't you just love it if the federal government only did the jobs it is supposed to do?

Remember the preamble to the Constitution of America. We, the people of The United States, in order to form a more perfect union: (1) establish justice, (2) insure domestic tranquility, (3) and provide for the common defense.

These three promote the general welfare and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity. And these three are the federal government's jobs.

Is it the government's job to provide the military, strong and intimidating to our enemies and comforting to us, US, U-S, United States Citizens? Yes

Now, is it the government's job to meddle in our lives? No

Is it the government's job to tax us to death? No

Is it the government's job to provide welfare? No - (Is it less expensive for the government to take care of the less fortunate than for the private sector to do it? No - Is it more personal for the government to take care of the less fortunate than for the private sector to do it? No)

Is it the government's job to provide foreign aid, that is, take our money and give it to foreign countries? No

Is it the government's job to spend more money than it has? No

Is it the government's job to restrict the freedoms of Americans? No

Is it the government's job for politicians to "do their own things" with our money, instead of representing us? No

Wouldn't you just love it if the government only did the jobs it is supposed to do?

Fools believe the government can take care of us, but I tell you that we are not all fools. Americans can take care of themselves and the less fortunate personally, without government.

The government is a necessary evil and must be kept as small as possible. If it is not, it will be controlling us instead of serving us.

That Dairy Odor

by Florene Turner (daughter of Helen Mae Tingley Ulrich Goss, daughter of Edith Gertrude Gage Tingley and Nelson Eugene Tingley)

When I was about 12, my father (Adam Moses Ulrich), mother (Helen), brother (Glenn Wendell Ulrich), and sister (Edith Luri Ulrich Rider) went on a very long road trip from California to Oklahoma and Missouri (the land of my father's birth and growing up). At one of the stops for supper (at a restaurant!), there was that horrendous dairy odor. I said to my father, "I just breathe through my mouth so that I don't have to smell it." My father replied, "I'd rather smell it than taste it!"

I just don't have the time anymore to devote to this worthy work. I love doing it. I have loved continuing the work that my brother Glenn started with Betty. I am proud to have been a part of it a couple of times. However, I need more time so that I can write biblical scripts for the Lord God.

Remembering

Remembering Father's Day

by Florene Turner (daughter of Helen Mae Tingley Ulrich Goss, daughter of Edith Gertrude Gage Tingley and Nelson Eugene Tingley)

Daddy is special. I cannot remember even one time when I wanted his attention that he ever said, "Just a minute," "Let me finish this," "Later," "I'm busy now." Every time that I remember needing his attention, he put down whatever he was doing and gave me his full attention.

Daddy was always doing something. Always. He called himself a jack of all trades and master of none. I can't remember that he was ever doing nothing.

His most outstanding characteristic was his fatherhood. I truly believe he was the best father of all time.

I was down about something, which now I can't remember what and went into the front bed room and into the walk-in closet. Then I shut the door. There was a little window in the closet. I shut the window.

After a while Sissie opened the door and asked what I was doing. I told her, "I am going to die," thinking that I would run out of air since it was a small area and the window and door were shut. I probably told her to close the door.

In a few minutes Daddy opened the door. He squatted and talked with me about dying. I can't remember anything we said, but I do remember that he pulled me back together, and we both stood up and left the "death chamber." I also remember that he never said a word that I could sit there until doomsday and would never run out of air. He did not make me feel foolish, but made me feel valuable.
